Technical Paper Format for the Hamlyn Workshop "Open-Source Software in Surgical Robotics"

A.N. Author[1], A Co-author[1], B Co-author[2]

[1]Institute for xxx, University XXX,

[2]Institute for xxx, University Hospital XXX
a.n.author@abc.edu

INTRODUCTION

The Hamlyn Workshop on "Open-Source Software in Surgical Robotics" is held at the Royal Geographical Society. Conveniently located in the heart of central London, the symposium venue is within a close proximity to the landmarks, museums and Royal parks of London.

MATERIALS AND METHODS

Topics to be addressed by the workshop include, but are not limited to: (1) Open-source software and hardware libraries and frameworks for surgical and biomedical sciences; (2) Open-source solutions for surgical robotics and biomedical applications; (3) Regulatory considerations for open-source software and hardware in clinical sciences; (4) Maintenance and long-term support of surgical and biomedical software and hardware; (5) Integration of open-source software and hardware into clinical trials; (6) Open-source solutions for low- and middle-income countries; (7) Case studies demonstrating novel applications and combinations of existing open-source tools and hardware; and (8) Project summaries, methodological approaches, research findings, and initiatives related to open-source software for surgical technologies.

RESULTS

Your submission should be no more than 2 pages to include the following sections: INTRODUCTION, MATERIALS AND METHODS, RESULTS, DISCUSSION and REFERENCES.

- Length: Maximum of A4 2 pages;
- Paper size: DIN A4 Size (210 mm x 297 mm);
- Rand: Leave a 25mm margin at top and bottom of the page, and a 20mm margin at left and right sides;
- Page-Layout: Set the text in two columns of 80 mm width, with a central separation of 10mm;
- Font properties and size: Title: 14 pt, bold; Authors: 14 pt, normal; Institute + E-mail address: 12 pt, italics; Section headings: 10 pt, Capitals, bold; Text: 10 pt, normal; Figure captions and references: 9pt, normal.

Fig. 1 Founded in 1830, the Royal Geographical Society is a world centre for geography: supporting research, education, expeditions and fieldwork, and promoting public engagement and informed enjoyment of the world.

DISCUSSION

Completed papers should be submitted as a pdf-file via the online submission at: https://openreview.net/group?id=hamlynsymposium.org/Hamlyn_Symposium/2026

Please contact the following e-mail addresses with any questions: m.xochicale@ucl.ac.uk, r.gollifer@ucl.ac.uk

REFERENCES

[1] Author AN, Co-Author B. The Transformation of Open Source Software. MIS Quarterly, Vol. 30, No. 3 (Sep., 2006).

[2] Co-author B. Open source licensing and business models. THE ICFAI JOURNAL OF KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT 7 (2009): 68-94.